U.S.D. MASTER OF EDUCATION DEGREE EXTENDED TO SAN BERNARDINO-RIVERSIDE

IMMEDIATE RELEASE - May 8, 1974

San Diego, California

The University of San Diego's program in education at the Master's degree level will be offered in the San Bernardino-Riverside area beginning in the fall, 1974.

Teachers, school administrators, and other interested students residing in the San Bernardino-Riverside area may earn a Master of Education degree by attending graduate level courses in this area, conducted by professors from the University of San Diego School of Education.

In the academic year 1974-75 U.S.D. will offer six graduate units in education during each of the two semesters. Students may earn an M.Ed. with specialization in Educational Psychology or Curriculum and Instruction by fulfilling the requirement of 30 units in the San Bernardino-Riverside center. Those seeking an M.Ed. in the field of Counselor Education or of Special Education may fulfill the requirement by studying at the San Bernardino-Riverside center and the regular summer program at the University of San Diego's Alcala Park campus.

Qualified students may take courses for non-credit. The program is also available to qualified veterans and retired military personnel, as well as to active duty personnel.

Students interested in this program may contact Dr. Henry J. Martin, Professor of Education, and Dr. DeForest L. Strunk, Professor of Special Education at the San Bernardino-Colton Holiday Inn, 666 Fairway Drive, San Bernardino, on May 29 and 30, or phone 825-7750 between 7-9 p.m. on May 29. For additional information, write or phone the Director of the External Degree Program, University of San Diego, Alcala Park, San Diego, CA 92110, 291-6480, extension 221.
